Lincoln Land Charity Championship announces tournament week event schedule

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. – The Lincoln Land Charity Championship, a Web.com Tour event set to be contested the week of July 11-17 at Panther Creek Country Club, today announced three special events slated to take place during tournament week.

On Tuesday, July 12 from 3:30 – 4:30 p.m., the tournament will host a Junior Clinic conducted by Web.com Tour Professionals. The clinic is free to all kids ages of 8-16, with participants receiving a gift from the Lincoln Land Charity Championship for attending and professionals taking part in an autograph session immediately following the conclusion of the clinic.

Parking for the event will be available at Glenwood High School, where a shuttle will escort juniors and their parents to the course. Tournament officials ask that participants register in advance of the event by sending the child's name and age to Meridith Freese at Meridith@brunoeventteam.com.

The Green Audi Putting Challenge will take place during competition days, starting on Thursday, July 14 and concluding on Sunday, July 17. Fans will have the opportunity to compete for a one-year lease on an Audi by partaking in a putting contest which could qualify them for a Sunday putt on the 18th green to win the grand prize. The finalists, who will be chosen from a blind draw of contestants who make the qualifying putt during the first three days, will be notified on Saturday, July 16. Visit www.lincolnlandcharitychampionship.com for more details.

On Saturday, July 16 from 11:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m., the tournament will feature Birdies & Brews on 9, with a fun and lively atmosphere overlooking the par-4 ninth. Birdies & Brews will allow for fans to mingle with friends while enjoying local craft beers and watching professional golf. Live music provided by Michael Burnett and Jeff Kornfeld will immediately follow the conclusion of third-round play.

Access into Birdies & Brews is free with a Good-Any-One-Day ticket purchase. Tickets are available at www.lincolnlandcharitychampionship.com.

“We wanted to make sure that this was an event that the entire community can take part in,” said Lincoln Land Charity Championship Tournament Director Alex McCarty. “This is more than just a golf tournament, and we hope that the entire community can enjoy the special events that we have planned throughout the week.”

Volunteer, spectator and handicap parking will be available all week at Glenwood High School in Chatham.

About the Lincoln Land Charity Championship and Panther Creek Country Club

The Lincoln Land Charity Championship is in its first year on the Web.com Tour. The Championship will consist of 156-player field, competing for a purse of $550,000 at Panther Creek Country Club in Springfield, Illinois. Proceeds from all ticket sales generated by the tournament will benefit local charities. World Golf Hall of Fame Member Hale Irwin designed Panther Creek's 7,244-yard course in 1992. The course has hosted several notable tournaments including the LPGA's State Farm Classic from 2007-2011 and this year was the host site of the NCAA Division II Super Regionals and the Great Lakes Valley Conference Golf Championship.

About the Web.com Tour

Founded (1990), owned and operated by the PGA TOUR, the Web.com Tour continues to identify those players who are ready to compete and win on golf's biggest stage. In 2013, the Web.com Tour became The Path to the PGA TOUR with all 50 available PGA TOUR cards coming through the Web.com Tour and the season culminating at the four-event Web.com Tour Finals. Web.com became the Tour's umbrella sponsor on June 27, 2012, with a 10-year agreement in place through 2021. This season marks the 27th year of competition on the Web.com Tour. Three out of four PGA TOUR members are Web.com Tour alumni. Tour alumni have won more than 425 PGA TOUR titles, including 21 majors and five PLAYERS Championships. The PGA TOUR, through the efforts of its Tours and their tournaments, sponsors, players and volunteers, has surpassed $2 billion in charitable giving.
