Lincoln Land Charity Championship Announces 2017 Pro-Am Sponsor Playing Positions Available for the LRS Pro-Am

The Lincoln Land Charity Championship announced today that the Official Pro-Am, scheduled for Wednesday, June 21st will be sponsored Levi, Ray & Shoup. “We are thrilled to partner with LRS on the presentation of the 2017 Pro-Am”, said Kate Peters, executive director of the tournament. “LRS is a respected pillar of the community and we know that this partnership will help elevate this second-year event and position us well for a future in Springfield. The goal for 2017 is to fill all amateur playing positions in the LRS Pro-Am as Pro-Am participation is critical for the tournament’s financial success. This tournament is the only professional men’s golf tournament in downstate Illinois - and our Pro-Am is a unique opportunity to spend a day with clients or friends and a future star of the PGA Tour.” Peters continued.

“Levi, Ray & Shoup is committed to supporting the greater Springfield community and we are very interested in the long-term success of events like the Lincoln Land Charity Championship because of the economic impact created, charitable reach and enhanced quality of life for our area. We are proud to be a part of professional golf again” said Ryan Levi, Vice President of Levi, Ray and Shoup.

2017 will mark the second year that the Lincoln Land Charity Championship will be held at Panther Creek Country Club. Tournament week is June 19 through 25, with official rounds contested June 22 – 25.
