Millard leads Inaugural Lincoln Land Charity Championship after first two rounds

Schniederjans sets men's competitive course record; one shot off the lead

Springfield, Illinois – Second round play of the inaugural Lincoln Land Charity Championship was action packed at Panther Creek Country Club in Springfield on Friday but it was one of the Web.com Tour's leading money winners who carded the best round of the day and set a course record.

Ollie Schniederjans, who came into play Thursday as the Tour's 3rd leading money winner, carded a nine under 62, setting the men's competitive course record at Panther Creek, vaulted the Dallas, Texas native into a second place tie with Martin Flores at 12 under par.

But it was Jason Millard, who finds himself in sole possession of first place at 13-under after shooting a 6-under 64 after the first two rounds. Millard and Schniederjans will be the tournament's final pairing when third round play begins on Saturday.

Local notables fail to make cut

Former University of Illinois Men's Golf standouts Charlie Danielson and Brian Campbell both finished the first two rounds at minus-2, but failed to make the cut line at 4-under while their former coach, Mike Small finished at 5-over par.

Springfield native, and the tournament's only amateur, Jake Mariott carded a 3-under 68 on Friday, finishing his first professional competition at 3 under par.
